A PROSPECTIVE DUEL. The Mayor of Frankfort, Ky., About Fight a Leading Citizen. LOUISVILLE, KY., May 6 .- Frankfort, Ky., is enjoying a sensation in a prospective duel which grows out of a controversy between Major Lewis E. Harvie, a wealthy and prominent citizen, and Edmund H. Taylor, the wellknown whisky man and mayor of the city. Mr. Harvie made a statement before a legisla tive committee reflecting on Mayor Taylor in connection with the sale of the city's gas works. Mr. Taylor pronounced it false, and there would have been trouble then but for

The trouble is believed to be over. The arrest of Grottgau, the socialistic leader, and several of his ollowers, has had an excellent effect upon that troublesome class. The district attorney has made a formal request, which was granted, for the call of a grand jury before whom the socialists will be prosecuted. At 10 o'clock a rowd of several hundred strikers was assemling near the western limit of the city, but word has just been received that the appearance of police scattered them. Alderman Budzinski, with several other res lents, called on Gov. Rusk yesterday, and proested against what he characterized as the nurder of his countrymen by the soldiers. "You go back and tell your countrymen," said the governor, "that we shall insist upon their remaining quietly at home or going to work, and that I will stop their assembling in crowds for purposes of riot, if I have to call every able-bodied man in the state into military service to do it." The excessive demands render the chances of amicable agreement almost out of the question, and the process of condemnation will have to be resorted to. The squares north of East Capitol street are deemed preferable by the commission, but it is probable that if those south can be more easily procured for the sum named they will be taken.

There is but one way to deal with these miscreants, now that they have oversternest. They must be taught by the most rigorous measures that, however tolerant the American people have been of their wild agrarian taik, when they advance from empty threats to violent practice they will be promptly net by the resistless force of the government, nd, if necessary, at the point of the bayonet. The promptest and the most vigorous method is the most merciful." The New York Graphic says: "This concise desperate is the mob spirit among the banded socialists of the western metropolis, and how necessary it is to teach them an impressive lesson before they can apply the torch to prop-erty. If the workingmen of Chicago had any common sense or discretion, they would promptly hang the glib-tongued scoundrels who preach incendiarism and assasination. 'It is a glorious death to die like a hero rather than be starved to death on 60 cents a day,' said Anarchist Fielden, but we do not note the name of Fielden, or Spies, or Parsons, among the list of killed and wounded. They were merely 'miss-ing,' like Mr. Most. When these flatulent frauds have excited their dupes to murderous recklessness, they themselves discreetly slink to the rear and get under cover, so as to be able to take up a fresh contribution. We have a number of nem in New York city, and we surmise that they will keep very still tongues in their mouths just now. The public temper here is not of a quality to tolerate anarchist speeches or anarchist methods at present."

The Philadelphia Record says: "Of one wholesomeness, full weight and superlative leavening power. Its own merits have been its chief advertisement, and they have secured for it the constant patronage of the American people to an extent beyond the combined sale of all other baking powders. The Royal Baking Powder is certified by all the government chemists as absolutely pure and perfect,

THE CHICAGO ANARCHIST BIOTS. The "Seventh's" Grateful Appreciation THEIR LETTER OF THANKS AND CHAIRMAN THOMPSON'S REPLY. Mr. J. W. Thompson, chairman of the citi zens' committee at the recent visit of the 7th New York regiment to Washington, has received the following letter from Col. Emmons Clark, commanding the 7th New York regi-"In behalf of the officers and members of this regiment I desire to acknowledge the many courtesies received from your committee during the recent visit to Washington and to express their grateful appreciation of your hearty welcome and generous hospitality. As the march of the 7th' to the defense of the national capital, April 19, 1861, was one of the mos memorable events in its history, so the brillian reception of the regiment on the 25th anni versary of that day by the citizens of Washing ton will long be remembered with pleasure by all who were so fortunate as to parade in its ranks on that occasion. With great respect the part of individuals had occurred, but never and regard, yours truly, before had strikes been conducted on so great a EMMONS CLARK, Colonel."

Mr. Thompson has replied to Col. Clark as follows: "I am the favored recipient of your communication of the 30th ultimo, and am gratified with the assurance that the recent ring times, when every organization should boldly amounce its position. That, at least, we have a right to know. The public will look to the Knights of Labor and to the labor unions in this context to make a plain statement of prinvisit to Washington of your distinguished compleasure you experienced during your brief so-journ at the national capital. Allow me to say that the Seventh New York will always receive from our citizens a welcome commensurate with its patriotic record. I am, with respect and esteem, very truly yours, J. W. Thompson, Chairman.

The Water Works Appropriation. MAJOR LYDECKER AND CAPT. SYMONS BEFORE THE HOUSE SUB-COMMITTEE.

Major Lydecker and Capt. Symons made arguments before the House sub-committee having in charge the appropriation for the Washington water works extension, to-day, in reply to the statements made by Capt. Hoxie in his examination by the sub-committee yesterday and day before. They both took the ground that the use of concrete as a lining for the tunnel where the rock was not sound was impracticable.

District Government Affairs. POLICEMEN DO NOT WANT TO BE DISMISSED WITHOUT TRIAL.
